The Twenty Disorganizers.

As many as twenty members of the House have some out in a card to the people, through the Nash wille papers, announcing their withdrawal from the Legislature, because they were unable to defeat the Franchise Bill. We propose to set forth some of the bad effects of this revolutionary and most unwarantable conduct:

1. They reduce the House below a querum, and paralyse the whole muchinery of the State Government, accomplishing an incalculable amount of

2. They injure the credit of the State, both at home and abroad; keep emigrants and capital out of Tennessee; and they contribute to keep the Tenmassee Senstors and Representatives out of Congress -demonstrating to the world that we are not only not reconstructed, but that we are not even civilized, seting under the influence of the old rebel spirit.

3. They have now consumed twenty-five days, at as expense of about $700 per day, making the sum of $17,000. Thirty days more must be lost to prosure the return of new members, which will add $21,000 mere, all of which comes out of the hones tax-payers of the State, to gratify the old spirit o the rebellion, and to gratify the almostied and purdoned rebels, who bang around the capitol, and prompt the leaders of these disorganizers.

4. There are twenty-one of them in all, and they claim the right to say how forty-fice shall vote. It 1961, and in February too, they were besten 60,000 votes in their vile attempt to carry the State out of the Union, but they rallied again, and with the air of Jeff. Davis' bayonets, forced Tennessee into rebellion. We say they, because we mean the party they now represent.

5. What must the people think of such conduct? The mutineers claim that the franchise law was sprung upon them suddenly, and forced to its third reading under the gag of the previous question, and that in this way they were forced to revolt. But the facts are, that the measure had been before the Legislature for the last five months. It had been discussed in the House for an entire week-its friends occupying two hours in its defense, and its onemies speaking thirteen hours against it. Still they ask for time and discussion !

Col. BAXTER says the majority of the Legisla ture and Gov. Brownlow are "on the wrong train. They are on the GREAT UNION TRAIN, the same on which they took passage in 1861, and on which they have ridden successfully and triumphantly for five years.

. You predict, Colonel, that this train will run off the track and destroy all on board. If it does loyalty is destroyed and rebellion triumphe. But we predict that your prediction will not be verified .-They are on the side of TRUTH, LIBERTY and JUS-TICE, and the God of battles will be with them. He may now veil his face to thick clouds, but

"Behind a frowning Providence, He hides a smiling face.

There is a quality in TRUTH which preserves it self and eventually triumphs. Truth is a thorough bred four-mile horse, while conscreation (se-called) is a scrubby quarter nag. On the short race-the quarter of a mile heat-the scrubby quarter mag is successful, but on the long race, thorough-bred-truth (radicalism) will always be victorious.

We tell you, Col. Baxter, in the spirit of friendly admonition, you are " on the wrong train. We feel an interest in your welfare, we esteem you as a per- said commissioner shall keep his office at the county . train you are on, and take passage on our Union train.
